Mark Schauer is a leader we can count on. As State Representative, Mark worked to make quality health care more affordable for seniors, improve education, and jump-start our area economy. Mark has a long history of helping our communities. Prior to his election to the State House, Mark served on the Battle Creek City Commission and was Executive Director of the Community Action Agency of South Central Michigan. Mark Schauer also wants to make prescription drugs more affordable, reduce class sizes in our schools, and bring new jobs to our communities.

THE ONLY THING WORSE THAN THE

daily grind

MARK SCHAUER IS WORKING...

...to keep us working

investing in worker retraining

Mark Schauer understands the importance of training workers to perform the jobs that drive the economy in the 21st century. When workers were laid off at the Kellogg's South Plant, Mark Schauer worked to make sure they were able to receive job retraining. And he fought to increase unemployment benefits for laid-off workers. Mark Schauer wants to expand worker retraining and education so our workforce will have the skills needed to meet the evolving demands of the marketplace.

jump-starting our economy

Mark Schauer has worked tirelessly to bring new jobs to our community and help existing businesses survive during the economic downturn. As our State Representative, Mark worked to protect local business owners from unethical out-of-state businesses. And he has supported economic development incentives to aid in job creation and business expansion.

Mark Schauer has a long history of building our local economy and helping workers. Throughout his career, Mark has been at the forefront of efforts to bring new jobs to our community, expand opportunities for worker retraining, and help existing businesses thrive.
